

School Annual Education Report (AER) Cover Letter

March 2018

Dear Parents and Community Members:

We are pleased to present you with the Annual Education Report (AER) which provides key information on the 2016-17 educational progress for the Lansing Everett High School. The AER addresses the complex reporting information required by federal and state laws. The school's report contains information about student assessment, accountability, and teacher quality. If you have any questions about the AER, please contact Dustin Gill for assistance.

The AER is available for you to review electronically by visiting the following web site <https://goo.gl/7GcVPf> (SEE Q.4 AND Q.5 OF THE 2017-18 AER FAQ DOCUMENT FOR DIRECTIONS), or you may review a copy in the main office at your child's school.

For the 2016-17 school year, schools were identified using new definitions and labels as required in the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). A Targeted Support and Improvement (TSI) school is one that has at least one underperforming student subgroup. An Additional Targeted Support (ATS) school is one that has three or more underperforming student subgroups. A Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI) school is one whose performance is in the lowest 5% of all schools in the state. Some schools are not identified with any of these labels. In these cases, no label is given.

Our school has not been given one of these labels.

Student improvement rates in reading, science, and social studies were below the state average. It is also important to note as a success, that our students showed improvement rates in math and writing that were close to state averages as well as achievement gaps in all areas that were near state averages. At Everett High School we are setting aside 10% of our Title I funds for professional development to train our staff in new strategies for working with our students in reading and math in order to increase learning. In addition, a specialized math program has been implemented specifically with our lowest achieving students. We are also expanding a READ 180 classroom for targeted students who have demonstrated a need for intensive reading instruction. We have also implemented a targeted student advocacy program to work with students who are struggling both socially and academically. This program focuses on bridging the gap between the school, the student, and their families. It includes training teachers and staff in Culturally Responsive Positive Behaviors Interventions and Supports.

State law requires that we also report additional information.
