SEE Camp is a one week, co-ed residential camp for high school students entering grades 10-12 who are interested in engineering. This camp is designed to help students learn about various engineering disciplines and industries as well as learn more about engineering at the University of Michigan.

Applications due February 24, 2020
For more information, visit seecamp.org

Hosted by

University of Michigan