Unit of Inquiry -

How we Express ourselves

Feb. - Mar.

Central Idea: We can use play and behavior to express our feelings and ideas

Key Concept: Form, connection, responsibility

Lines of Inquiry:

1. Ways people express their feelings
2. Ways we use our bodies
3. Our responsibility towards appropriate behavior

English & IB

February is Black History Month. We read books about being inclusive and welcoming to people who are different from us. Children are open-minded to show kindness and care to present "differences are ok". We are working on letter recognition by spelling names, sight words, and writing. Please work with your child(ren) at home so they can have strong literacy skills for Kindergarten.

Chinese

As we are learning the "How we express ourselves" unit, we learned emotions in Chinese. We made a short individual puppet show to talk about our feelings during different activities and how to take care of difficult feelings.
